New Semester Kicks off with Annual Faculty Retreat 2020

In preparation for the new academic year, Asia University held its annual faculty retreat from August 27 to August 28, 2020. Due to the rampage of COVID-19, some 200 professors and staff members showed up with masks for the event in the auditorium by keeping enough social distancing, and the other 500 faculty members joined the retreat on-line either in the office or at home for the sake of safety. President Jeffrey J. P. Tsai announces that the focus of this year's retreat is "Change for the better as a New Normal and AI-added Programs as a New Value." He says that the retreat aims to foster a consensus on strengthening teaching and research, promoting the university's social responsibility (USR), connecting academy with industry, expanding international cooperation, recruiting research talents, and incorporating AI knowledge and skills into interdisciplinary studies from six colleges...
